

School of Public Affairs and Civic Engagement
College of Health and Social Sciences
San Francisco State University

Position title: Assistant Professor position in School of Public Affairs and Civic Engagement, Criminal Justice Studies Program.

Start date: August 2019

Position Summary: The position is in the Criminal Justice Studies program in the School of Public Affairs and Civic Engagement at San Francisco State University.

The School of Public Affairs and Civic Engagement is a collaborative interdisciplinary school of public affairs oriented scholars that delivers degree programs in Criminal Justice Studies, Environmental Studies, Gerontology, Public Administration, and Urban Studies and Planning.

The position focused on technology, surveillance and social control in the context of critical approaches to crime, law and justice through the lens of the histories, experiences and/or practices of surveillance.

The position includes a full-time faculty workload per the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the California State University and the California Faculty Association. The workload primarily includes teaching or other agreed upon primary assignment; conducting an active ongoing program of scholarship or creative works that advances knowledge in the field of one's specialty; and service contributions to the department, college and the university.

The teaching assignments will be in Criminal Justice Studies and candidates will be expected to teach core classes in the undergraduate curriculum as well as electives in their areas of specialization.

The scholarship may address a range of topics in the areas of technology, surveillance and social control.

Additional responsibilities include, but are not limited to, productive participation on departmental, college, and university-wide committees; mentoring and advising undergraduate students; holding regular office hours; curriculum development and improvement, particularly with regard to student learning outcomes; and remaining current in both subject area and teaching methodologies.

Essential Job Tasks:

- Facilitate student success through teaching and advising with a focus on inclusive pedagogy;
- Develop course materials for undergraduate students on topics such as technology, surveillance and social control linked to student learning outcomes;
- Evaluate and grade students' class work, assignments, papers, etc. in a timely manner;
- Compile, administer, and grade examinations or other learning assessments;
- Maintain student grades and other required records or reporting materials;
- Conduct research in one's field of interest and present findings in peer-reviewed journals, books, or professional conferences
- Stay current on developments in the discipline
- Plan, evaluate and revise curricula, course content, course materials, and methods of instruction;
- Hold regularly-scheduled office hours for the purpose of advising and assisting students;
- Actively participate on assigned committees in accordance with program, School and/or College needs, and SF State's strategic vision;
- Actively participate in collegial interactions in fulfilling service assignments and other duties at the department, college, and university level.
- Additional duties as assigned.

