Course Description
This course focuses on the study of contemporary leadership theory and practice, paying particular attention to leading change across sectors in the United State and abroad. The course introduces students to the key concepts of leadership and change, including mainstream and more nuanced theories and emerging perspectives and focused on change leadership in several key contexts including organizational, community, social, political and global.
Course Objectives
1. Provide students with an understanding of mainstream and emergent leadership theories, with a focus on change leadership
2. Provide students with a framework for understanding change in various contexts
3. Introduce frameworks for critically assessing and analyzing cross-boundary, cross-sector leadership and change
4. Provide students with the tools needed to apply theories and lessons learned from cases about leadership to the analysis of "real world" leaders
5. Provide students with the opportunity for critical self-reflection and analysis of leadership development strengths and opportunities for growth

Student Learning Outcomes
1. Demonstrate an understanding of mainstream and emergent leadership theories, change leadership in particular
2. Demonstrate an understanding of frameworks for understanding change in various contexts
3. Demonstrate the ability to assess and analyze cross-boundary, cross-sector leadership and change using theories and frameworks introduced in class
4. Demonstrate ability to identify drivers and constraints of change, as well as strategies for leading change in a variety of situations
5. Exhibit competency in conducting written and oral case study presentations related to leadership change across sectors

Course Organization and Approach
The course will include lectures, assigned and independent reading, class discussion, case studies, small-group work, and student presentations. The instructor will give lectures and lead discussions. Students are expected to contribute knowledge, information, and well-reasoned ideas. Student contributions may draw from independent reading, field research, prior studies, and personal experience.

Instructor Expectations
1. Bring high expectations for yourself and your instructor
2. Prepare for the class with curiosity, passion and interest
3. Be respectful of others and their views
4. Speak up when you disagree
5. Ask questions when you don't understand
6. Step up/step back
7. Act in accordance honesty, integrity and excellence
8. Build the respect of your peers and your instructor
9. Different levels of preparedness, including prior experience and general scholastic ability, and various competing priorities with school and work - be accountable
10. Instructor as teacher, facilitator and coach

B. CHSS Policy
Syllabi are to incorporate the Academic Senate Policy regarding finals week, the deadlines or withdrawals, late adds, CR/NC option and information related to course registration and Disability Programs and Resource Center. A sample listing of the required College policies are shown below.

Final Exam: According to Academic Senate policy F76-12 a time period is set aside at the end of each semester for a formal examination period. All classes are expected to meet during the final examination period whether an examination is given or not. The final examination schedule is published each semester in the Class Schedule.

CHSS Withdrawal Policy: The last day to drop a class is September 14, 2016 until 11:59pm. Starting September 15 - November 22, 2016 you must submit a paper withdrawal petition. Withdrawal from a class starting September 15, 2016 will be considered for serious and compelling reasons only and must have accompanying documentation. The following reasons are not considered serious and compelling: Changing your major, poor performance, class not required for graduation/major, lacking the pre-requisite, instructor forgot to drop me, not attending class or more time needed for other classes. If you wish to withdraw from class due to unexpected changes in your work schedule, illness or family emergencies, documentation will be required, along with a copy of unofficial transcripts. Submit your petition within a reasonable timeframe (e.g., within 2 weeks of a change in work hours.) From November 23 - December 14, 2016 you may not withdraw from a class or the University, except only in the case of a serious documented illness or verified accident.

Withdrawals cannot be initiated electronically and must be submitted using a paper application. All electronic submissions of withdrawals will be denied automatically by the Associate Dean. You are only allowed to withdrawal from a maximum of 18 units and take a class no more than 2 times at SF State. Approval from the instructor and/or Chair does not constitute automatic approval from the associate dean so continue attending class until a decision is made. Please refer to the following website for further information on withdrawal polices: http://chss.sfsu.edu/src

CR/NC Option: The last day to request CR/NC option is October 19, 2016 until 11:59pm. The Associate Dean will not approve requests for changes if you miss this deadline.

Late Add Policy: The period to add classes via permission numbers is August 24 - September 14, 2016. It is your responsibility to procure a late permission number from your instructor and add the class. Faculty cannot add you into a class. Starting September 15, 2016, a Waiver of College Regulations form must be signed by your instructor, Chair and CHSS Associate Dean to add. This will be approved only if there was an administrative error.

Check your registration through SF State Gateway: Sign up for CR/NC, drop and add classes by the appropriate deadline online through S F State Gateway. ALWAYS check your registration after making any changes and BEFORE deadlines to be sure you are registered properly for your classes. Deadlines for all registration procedures, including withdrawals and requests for credit/no credit, are listed in the class schedule and will be strictly adhered to by the instructor, the Department Chair and the Associate Dean of College of Health & Social Sciences. It is ALWAYS the student's responsibility to ensure their schedule is correct, even if the instructor indicates they will drop you.

This can be viewed on the Registration Calendar at the following website:

Disability Programs and Resource Center: Students with disabilities who need reasonable accommodations are encouraged to contact the instructor. The Disability Programs and Resource Center (DPRC) is available to facilitate the reasonable accommodations process. The DPRC is located in the Student Service Building and can be reached by telephone (voice/TTY 415-338-2472) or by email (dprc@sfsu.edu).

Student Disclosures of Sexual Violence: SF State fosters a campus free of sexual violence including sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and/or any form of sex or gender discrimination. If you disclose a personal experience as an SF State student, the course instructor is required to notify the Dean of Students. To disclose any such violence confidentially, contact:
